BOTHWELL HOSPICE TO HOST COMMUNITY MEMORIAL SERVICE

SEDALIA, MO - Bothwell Hospice is hosting a memorial service so members of the community can commemorate loved ones who have died.

The community is invited to the 19th annual Community Memorial Service, themed "A Time to Remember." The service will be held at 6:30 p.m. on Tuesday, June 3, at Bothwell Education Center, 600 E. 14th Street, Sedalia.

The event, which is free and open to the public, gives people the opportunity to honor and memorialize others who have died. Attendees may share a story, memory or poem about their loved one.

"It's a special time that people can set aside to be together and remember a loved one they have lost," said Tammy Goehman, hospice social worker. "Activities, such as attending the memorial service or planting a tree in memory of a loved one, are important in the grieving process."

For more information, contact Goehman at 660-829-2700.
