BOTHWELL EMPLOYEE NAMED TO WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT BOARD

SEDALIA, MO – Lisa Irwin, Human Resources manager at Bothwell Regional Health Center, was recently named to the Workforce Development Board of Western Missouri, Inc.

The board provides services that match job seekers with employment opportunities and assists employers in finding qualified employees.

“I am pleased and honored to be selected to represent the community on the Workforce Development Board,” said Irwin, a certified Senior Professional in Human Resources who has worked at Bothwell for almost 16 years. “I look forward to contributing to the growth and development of the workforce in our community.”

Located in Sedalia, the Workforce Development Board of Western Missouri is a non-profit organization created by community and local government leaders to serve the people, businesses and economic interests of a 13-county region in Missouri. The board has provided training and employment services to Bates, Benton, Carroll, Cedar, Chariton, Henry, Hickory, Johnson, Lafayette, Pettis, Saline, St. Clair, and Vernon counties in Missouri since 1983.
