TWO NURSE MIDWIVES JOIN BOTHWELL OB/GYN

Certified Nurse Midwives Amanda Hill and Lindsey Wilson have joined Bothwell OB/GYN Associates in Sedalia.

Hill earned her master's degree in nursing from the University of Utah, Salt Lake City, and worked as a registered nurse in Labor & Delivery at Salt Lake Regional Medical Center.

Wilson earned a doctor of nursing practice in nurse-midwifery from Baylor University in Dallas, TX. She completed a nurse-midwife fellowship at Allen Birth Center in Allen, TX, and a student midwife residency at Providence Medical Center, Waco, TX, and at Parkland Hospital, Dallas.

Hill and Wilson are members of the American College of Nurse-Midwives.

A nurse midwife is an advanced practice registered nurse who has had training in obstetrics and works under the supervision of an obstetrician. Midwives can evaluate and treat women's health conditions, conduct pelvic exams, breast exams and Pap smears. They also assist with labor and childbirth.

At Bothwell OB/GYN Associates, board-certified obstetricians, gynecologists, nurse practitioners and nurse midwives provide care for women during all phases of their lives. The staff includes physicians Dr. Abraham Azan, Dr. David Oberkrom, Dr. William Smith and Dr. Amy Thompson; Certified Nurse Midwife Liz Current and Nurse Practitioner Faye Evans. Office hours are Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. To make an appointment, call (660) 827-0015.
